

The San Fele Association of Western New York Presents

Reunion 2013

Saturday, May 25th

Mass: 10:30am • St. Anthony of Padua Church - 160 Court St. • Buffalo, New York

Reception: 11:30am • Luncheon: 12:30pm • Buffalo Convention Center - Pearl Street Entrance

The expressions of love, happiness and pride which filled the hearts of the participants of Reunions 2000, 2001, 2003, 2005, 2007, 2009, 2011 make Reunion 2013 a much anticipated celebration.

Therefore, we again honor our ancestors who came to a new home for their families at that time in history when opportunities were more available in America. This year's Reunion 2013 honorees are the Children of San Fele, past and present. We also pay respect to their Italian home of San Fele and the surrounding villages where many of our relatives and their friends originated.

This year, we welcome as guests 20 students, professors and dignitaries visiting Buffalo from Istituto Tecnico Industriale Statale, a school located in Picerno, 15 kilometers from San Fele.

The San Fele Association of Western New York invites you to attend Mass at St. Anthony of Padua Church, the Mother Church of the Italian-American community of Western New York. St. Anthony's is also the home of the Statue of the Madonna di Pierno, the patron of the San Fele people. The San Fele migrant community was instrumental in founding this beautiful house of worship.

Please join us for Mass/Reception honoring our ancestors, the Village of San Fele, and Western New York as we pray, dine and drink while celebrating as a family and giving thanks to all who preceded and influenced us.
